

Contents

SIA #192
November/December 2002

DriveReports

- 24 1988 Pontiac Fiero GT
General Motors' well-engineered plastic "sports car."
- 40 1968 Mini Cooper
Austin's highly innovative miniature masterpiece.
- 48 1972 AMC Gremlin
American Motors' distinctively different subcompact design.

Special Features

- 12 Nash
Eleven-page tribute to America's greatest Independent automaker.
- 36 Timeline
AMC's appealing car for the masses: the 1958-74 Ambassador.
- 54 Mechanical Marvels
Inside the canted design of Chrysler's aluminum Slant Six.

Driveable Dreams

- 32 1950 Lincoln
The endearing qualities of an all-original Sport Sedan.

Departments

- 2 Style & Speed
- 4 Overdrive
- 6 Recaps
- 8 Motoring Miscellany
- 10 Lost and Found
- 23 Pioneers
- 35 Books & Lit
- 38 The Collectors
- 57 Small Cars
- 58 Rear View Mirror
- 60 Buyer's Guide
- 60 Showtime
- 61 Sleepers
- 64 Oddies but Goodies

On The Cover: The Capital Region of New York State is home to this lovely 1946 Nash Ambassador owned by William Borntraeger (photograph by Richard A. Lentiniello).

